report to the THSRAI Board of Directors.

- c. The National Director will assume duties assigned by the NHSRAI Board of Directors.
- d. The National Director will attend regional rodeos as needed and report any regional problems or issues to the THSRAI Board of Directors.
- e. The National Director will be accessible by all Regional and State Directors to answer questions related to the NHSRA rule book and state compliance.

C. DELEGATES (Adults)

1. Three (3) delegates shall be elected or appointed by the THSRAI Board of Directors at the THSRAI Finals Rodeo Meeting. These delegates and the National Director shall attend the NHSRAI meeting held during the NHSRAI Finals Rodeo.

D. STATE EVENT DIRECTORS (Adult)

1. State Event Directors may be appointed by the THSRAI Board of Directors for the THSRAI Finals Rodeo. They will supervise preparations for their respective event at the THSRAI Finals Rodeo. These directors may be contacted to assist any region or member association in conducting clinics and handling event related situations.
2. Each region shall ensure that a State Director from said region is present at each regional high school rodeo.

ARTICLE IV. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

There shall be a State Board of Directors which will represent and consist of forty-four (44) members: three (3) State Directors from each of the ten (10) regions within the state with one (1) vote each, one (1) National Director with one (1) vote, three (3) Student Officers with one (1) vote each including the Student President, Vice President, and Secretary, one (1) State Queen with one (1) vote, and nine (9) members of the state's Executive Board including the President (voting only in the event of a tie), the Past President with one (1) vote, and the 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, and five (5) Delegates At Large with one (1) vote each.

No region shall elect more than one (1) director per household. (The names, addresses and other pertinent information listed on EXHIBIT A.) These State-Regional Directors will vote on any matter pertaining to respective Regional Rodeos in conjunction with the THSRAI Finals Rodeo. A financial statement and an agenda containing all business to be discussed and voted upon must be mailed or electronically emailed to all members of the THSRAI Board of Directors ten (10) days prior to a regular or special called meeting. An emergency meeting can be held and business conducted by the Executive Committee composed of those listed below. An emergency meeting will require two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Executive Committee; regular meeting fifty-one percent (51%) of the THSRAI Board membership with a simple majority.

Each State Director will be required to furnish complete contact information to include mailing and shipping addresses, telephone numbers, and email addresses.

The Board of State Directors shall transact the general business of the Association including the negotiation and execution of various forms of contracts including, but not limited to stock contracts, leases, and sponsorship contracts. The terms and conditions of those various contracts shall remain confidential, not to be disclosed with any outside party. Each State Director will be required to sign a confidentiality agreement and violations of the confidentiality agreement will be grounds for immediate dismissal.

There shall be an Executive Committee of the THSRAI Board of Directors composed of the Immediate Past President, President, 1st Vice-President, 2nd Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, National Director, and five (5) Delegates elected by the THSRAI Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting. This committee shall have the power of the THSRAI Board of Directors to transact business of an emergency nature. A report of the Executive Committee will be made to the THSRAI Board of Directors at the next regular meeting or by letter. In order to be elected to the Executive Committee, candidates must be current members of the State Board of Directors and must have served on the state board for a minimum of one year.

Vacancies on the THSRAI Board of Directors shall be filled upon recommendations by the THSRAI Board Members of that Region to be acted upon by the remaining THSRAI Board of Directors within thirty (30) days. This would also include any member resigning from said THSRAI Board of Directors. If a THSRAI Board Member misses two (2) consecutive meetings, that member shall be replaced within that region, with the THSRAI Board of Directors recommendations.

Any deadlines not met will result in the following fines: a) 1st offense - $500.00; b) second offense - $1,000.00; and, c) third offense will result in region being put on probation.

ARTICLE XIII. SCHOLARSHIP FUND

- A. THSRAI shall maintain an exclusive bank account set up for the sole purpose of holding scholarship funds and making approved disbursements to scholarship recipients.
- B. This fund will stay intact as long as THSRAI is in existence.
- C. Recipients will have three (3) years to provide necessary proof of enrollment and claim the scholarship funds awarded per the instructions provided to each recipient.
- D. Types of Scholarships:
 - 1. Academic – to be applied for
 - 2. Traveling – to be won for expenses to NHSRAI Finals
- E. Scholarship approval and awards will be made by THSRAI Executive Board after selection by Scholarship Committee appointed by the President.
- F. THSRAI scholarship funds will be funded by earmarked donations, sponsorships with the association and interest earned on the scholarship account.

ARTICLE XIV. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

ARTICLE XV. AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any regular meeting of the association by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and voting provided notice of the proposed amendment shall have been given in the notice of the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE XVI. EXECUTIVE SESSION

The THSRAI Board of Directors either wholly or in part may adjourn into a closed meeting.

ARTICLE XVII. GRIEVANCE

Procedure is to be established in accordance with NHSRAI. The Regional and State executive committee shall hear grievances at the Regional and State level.

ARTICLE XVIII. CASH RESERVES/INVESTMENT POLICY

- A. Reserves: The Association will maintain a minimum balance of $500,000.00 in cash reserves. These reserves will assist the Association through crisis periods and help to meet needs should they arise.
- B. Investment Policy: The Executive Committee and the State Secretary are responsible for prudently investing the reserves within the policy guidelines adopted by the State Board of Directors. The guidelines are:
 - a. The reserves shall be invested in short-term certificates of deposit (term not to exceed twelve months) or revenue-producing accounts with banks for institutions that, to the extent practical, meet the following criteria: (1) can fully insure such deposits, (2) current investment levels do not exceed FDIC insured levels in each account, (3) pay competitive interest rates, (4) make interest payments at least quarterly, (5) are supportive of THSRA's mission and the sport of rodeo.
 - b. Any withdrawal from the reserves investment accounts will require approval by a two-thirds majority vote of the State Board of Directors.

Amended 10/2025
